

Curriculum Vitae

ANUAR NAHES (MR.)

Born in São Paulo, Brazil, on May 25th, 1952, joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in December, 1982.

Academic studies:

Bachelor's Degree in Portuguese and German, College of Liberal Arts, University of São Paulo, 1974. Licentiate in Portuguese, College of Education, University of São Paulo, 1975. Licentiate in Pedagogy, College of Liberal Arts "Prof. Carlos Pasquale", São Paulo, 1976. Diplomatic Academy, Rio Branco Institute, Brasília, 1981/82. High Studies Course at the Diplomatic Academy (Rio Branco Institute), dissertation "Brazil and the Gulf War Reparations: the United Nations Compensation Commission", 2003.

Languages: French, English, Spanish and basic German

Career: Third Secretary, December, 1982; Second Secretary, December, 1986; First Secretary, June, 1992; Counselor, December, 1997; Minister, June 2005.

Assignments in Brazil: Assistant to the Director of the South America- I Division, 1983. Assistant to the Director of the United Nations Division, 1984. Assistant to the Press Secretary of the Foreign Minister's Office, 1985/1986. Head of the Middle East Division, 1995. Assistant to the Director-General of the Brazilian National Electricity Agency, 2003. Head of the Personnel Division, 2004. General Coordinator of the Follow-up on the South-America – Arab Countries Summit, 2005.

Assignments abroad: Permanent Mission of Brazil to the United Nations, New York, Secretary, 1986. Brazilian Embassy in Caracas, Secretary, 1989. Brazilian Embassy in Damascus, Secretary, 1992. Brazilian Embassy in Paris, Counselor, 1998; Brazilian Embassy in Tunis, Minister-Counselor, 2002; Brazilia Embassy in Doha, Ambassador, 2007.

Publications: Diplomatic Language: an Ironic-linguistic Approach, article, Public Service Review, year 39, n.2, April/June 1982; Israelis and Palestinians: chronicle of an unavoidable co-existence, article, daily newspaper "Folha de São Paulo, 06.09.1999. The Arab-South American Summit, One Year After, article, daily newspaper "Correio Braziliense", May 2006.

Decorations: Rio Branco Award (Brazil); Lafayette de Carvalho e Silva Award (Brazil); Order of Rio Branco, Cavalier (Brazil); Order of the Cedar Award, Cavalier (Lebanon); Order of Santos-Dumont, Ministry of Defense, Air Force Command (Brazil); Order of Rio Branco, Great Official (Brazil).